The laptop screen shows the Azure dashboard with sections for Resource Group, Web Front End, Database, Processes, and Cognitive Services, each containing various charts and metrics.

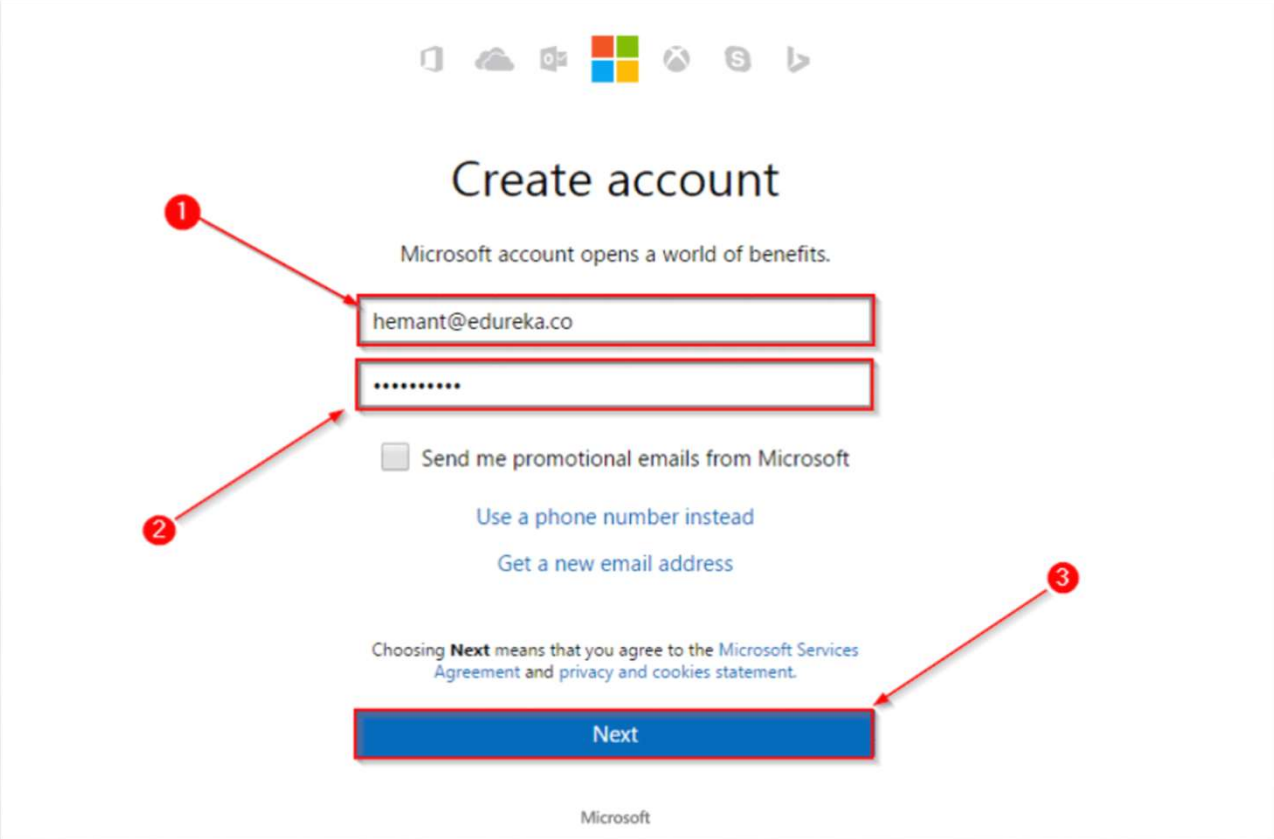

Step 2

- Step 2: Click on Create New Microsoft Account.

Step 3

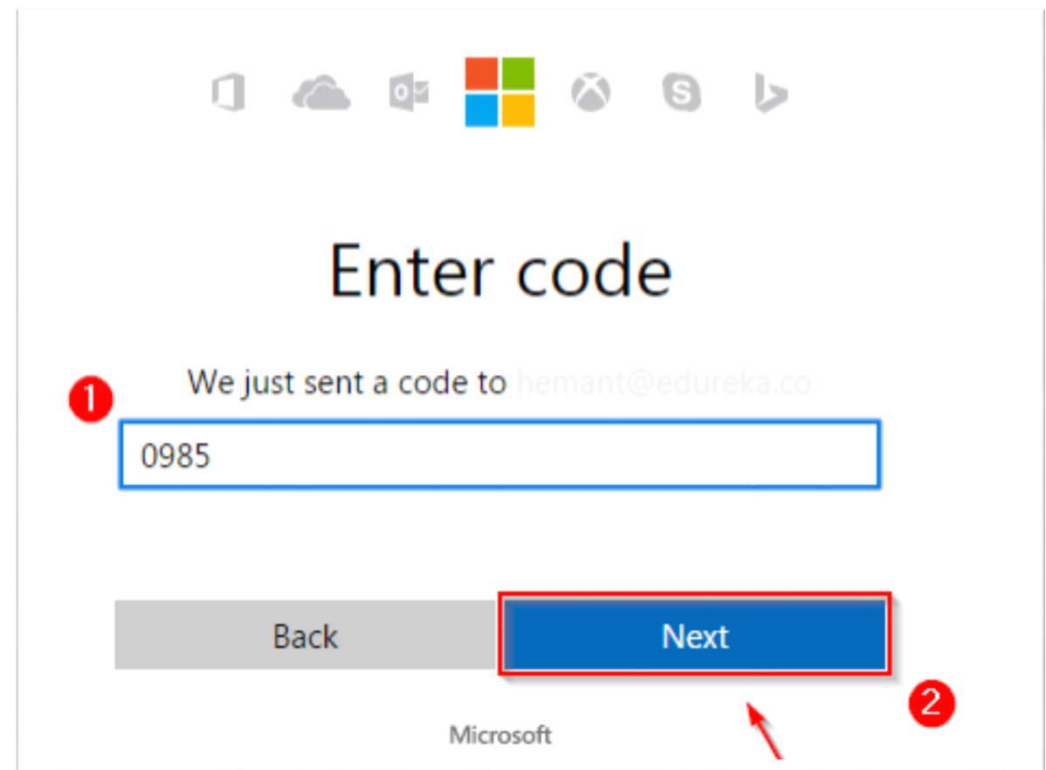

- Do the following steps:
 - Enter you email address
 - Enter a suitable password
 - Click on Create Account

The screenshot shows the Microsoft 'Create account' page. At the top, there are icons for various Microsoft services. The main heading is 'Create account', followed by the text 'Microsoft account opens a world of benefits.' Below this, there are two input fields: the first contains the email address 'hemant@edureka.co' and the second contains a masked password '.....'. A red circle with the number '1' has an arrow pointing to the email field, and a red circle with the number '2' has an arrow pointing to the password field. Below the password field is a checkbox labeled 'Send me promotional emails from Microsoft'. There are two links: 'Use a phone number instead' and 'Get a new email address'. Below these links, there is a line of text: 'Choosing Next means that you agree to the Microsoft Services Agreement and privacy and cookies statement.' At the bottom, there is a blue button labeled 'Next'. A red circle with the number '3' has an arrow pointing to this button. The Microsoft logo is at the very bottom.

Step 4

- On the next page, do the following things:
 - Enter the verification code sent to email address
 - Click on Verify

The screenshot shows the Microsoft account verification interface. At the top, there are icons for various Microsoft services: OneDrive, Office 365, Outlook, the Microsoft logo, Xbox, Skype, and Edge. The main heading is "Enter code". Below this, a message states "We just sent a code to hemant@edureka.co", with a red circle containing the number "1" next to it. A text input field contains the code "0985". At the bottom, there are two buttons: a grey "Back" button and a blue "Next" button. The "Next" button is highlighted with a red rectangle, and a red arrow points to it from a red circle containing the number "2". The Microsoft logo is visible at the bottom center of the page.
